

vocab 11

1. abstruse adj. Dealing with matters difficult to be understood.
2. accede v. To agree.
3. assent v. To express agreement with a statement or matter of opinion.
3. bibliophile n. One who loves books.
4. brusque adj. Somewhat rough or rude in manner or speech.
5. callow adj. Without experience of the world.
6. demagogue n. An unprincipled politician.
7. edict n. That which is uttered or proclaimed by authority as a rule of action.
8. excursion n. A journey.
9. expectancy n. The act or state of looking forward to as certain or probable.
10. fidelity n. Loyalty.
11. fluent adj. Having a ready or easy flow of words or ideas.
12. jocular adj. Inclined to joke.
13. isochronous adj. Relating to or denoting equal intervals of time.
14. pertinacious adj. Persistent or unyielding.
15. regress v. To return to a former place or condition.